

And the Question is...

Name _____

Directions: Write the topic of your paper next to “Topic” (example: “Topic: koalas”), then use the “Question” blanks to write the specific questions to which you need to find the answers (example: “Question: What do koalas eat?” “Question: How long do koalas live?”). When you find the answer, write it on an “Answer” blank. Use the back of the paper to record the sources in which you found the answers.
